Writ petition is filed against the Upasana Hospital, Kollam. It is admitted in the pleadings and the submissions that this hospital is a private hospital run by an individual. Petitioner has not shown as to how a writ petition is maintainable against such a private hospital.

2. Even otherwise, I do not think that the 1st respondent is discharging any public duty rendering itself amenable to the writ of jurisdiction of this court.

Writ petition fails and is dismissed.

ANTONY DOMINIC, JUDGE
